The people are daily becoming more and more a reading people. The people of the cities demand two papers a day, and the people of the country demand two papers a week.

It is a hopeful sign, this growth of reading among the people, and this demand the Gazette would supply by issuing the weekly edition twice a week, with no increase in price.

In addition to giving its patrons the "Weekly" paper twice a week, the Gazette has added four pages to the weekly, its Semi-Weekly edition containing eight pages, thus increasing the number of pages from twelve to sixteen weekly. People in the country and people in the city who do not feel able to take a daily can now have excuse for denying themselves the news of the world.

The World's fair being the great attraction this year, the local summer resorts suffer a corresponding loss. People who are in fairly comfortable, but not exactly easy circumstances—and this class furnishes the bulk of the summer tourist business—will find a great extent of their social summer outing spent in the mountains, by the streams and in the forests, the go-go.

In order to meet this condition of affairs the Fort Worth and Denver railroad has decided to place on sale tickets to the World's fair at a round trip rate of $62.50 to Denver and Kansas City. The ticket will have an opportunity of seeing and visiting the numerous delightful resorts in Colorado, and after spending a few days or weeks there, as the case may be, go on to Chicago and see the great fair, thus combining the best of summer outing with a view of the world's "greatest of all wonders," the White City.
